Flippin' marvellous!

IT'S not often you see Disney characters running through Wallingford flipping pancakes.

But on Tuesday morning hundreds lined the Market Place as children and adults raced through the centre of Wallingford to celebrate Pancake Day.

Resident Christian Sinkinson, who owns photography company More Than Images, defended his Golden Frying Pan Trophy after completing the most laps dressed as Tigger.

The pancake race is organised by Wallingford Town Council and South Moreton Boxing Club.

This year's event raised money for Dorchester charity Footsteps Foundation.

CARE HOME RAPPED

RESIDENTS at a Didcot care home are not always able to get to the toilet on time because of staff shortages, a health watchdog report has revealed.

According to an investigation by the Care Quality Commission, an independent regulator of health and social care, The Meadows in Britwell Road "requires improvement".

The care home looks after 65 people and inspectors visited the centre unannounced on December 22 last year.

They made the visit after receiving concerns about levels of staffing, management of bedsores and cleanliness.

The report, out on Monday, said "staff did not always assist people straight away" and residents' "dignity was not upheld as they could not get to the toilet in a timely way."

It also said people were not always protected from bedsores because pressure relieving mattresses "were not on the correct settings".

M40 horror smash leaves man dead

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

POLICE are continuing to investigate a 33-vehicle crash on the M40 on Saturday which saw a 65-year-old man killed and seven others seriously injured.

The accident happened at around 7.50am on the northbound carriageway of the M40 between junctions 9 and 10 – Bicester and Brackley – in heavy fog.

The 65-year-old, from Woking in Surrey, died at the scene, while seven others were taken to the John Radcliffe Hospital in Oxford with serious injuries.

Six people with minor injuries were taken to the Horton Hospital in Banbury, while another 49 people involved in the collision were assessed at the scene.

The motorway remained closed until around 4.30pm on Saturday evening.

Insp Daren Courtenay from the Joint Operations Unit for Roads Policing said: "Our thoughts remain with the family and friends of the man who died at the scene.

"What the scene officers were faced with was complex and required a large amount of investigation, of working with partner agencies to ensure those involved received the appropriate medical treatment, and the subsequent recovery of the vehicles involved."

Senior investigating officer Sgt Ashley Hannibal from the Serious Collision Investigation Unit added: "An investigation into this large-scale collision, in which a man sadly lost his life, is continuing.

"The scene is in the process of being digitally reconstructed to enable investigating officers to establish the positions of the vehicles involved and piece together the circumstances of the collision."

The accident came on the same morning three men were killed in an accident on the M1 in Bedfordshire, with a fourth person being taken to the John Radcliffe with serious injuries.

Police have asked any other witnesses to the M40 crash to contact them on 101.

Robber jailed for 'terrifying theft'

AN OXFORD robber who stole a bag in a vicious attack on a 26-year-old man last year has been sentenced to three years and nine months in prison.

Shaun Brown, 29, of Paradise Street, was found guilty by a unanimous jury verdict at Oxford Crown Court last Friday, and sentenced the same day.

The court heard at 11.55pm on July 12 last year, the victim was walking down an alley to Woodins Way in Oxford when he was approached by an offender.

The suspect, who had his face covered, tried to take the bag, and the victim was stabbed in the arm.

Brown then appeared from the bushes, also with his face covered, and stole the bag before both men ran away.

He was arrested on August 12 and charged two days later.

Det Con George Atkinson from Oxford Force CID said: "This crime was a terrifying experience for the victim.

"He was walking through a quiet residential area in the city centre at night and was preyed upon because of his vulnerability of being alone.

"Brown being jailed for nearly four years will act as a deterrent for others and will help keep the streets of Oxford safe at night."

Crier exposed

OXON: A town crier who has worked in Oxford and Wallingford has resigned from his position after lying about his military past.

Anthony Church had claimed he was a regimental sergeant major, but allegations to the contrary appeared on the internet over the weekend.

He was found out by The Walter Mitty Hunters Club on Facebook, who expose people pretending to be war veterans.

Mr Church was also the town crier for Chipping Norton, Banbury, Thame and Daventry.

Live discussion

OXON: Thames Valley Police is holding an online discussion for people interested in joining the Special Constabulary to speak to officers about what they can expect from the role.

It is running this evening from 6pm to 7pm on thamesvp.coverpage.coveritlive.com.

Special constables are volunteers who work alongside regular officers.

Insp Michelle Ryan said: "We're hoping that potential recruits will seize this opportunity to speak to officers and staff about what the recruitment process entails."

Sexual assault

OXFORD: Police are appealing for witnesses after a woman in her fifties was sexually assaulted in Kersington Crescent on February 9.

The incident happened at around 10pm and the offender approached the victim on a bicycle.

The man is described as black, of medium build and has a shaven or bald head.

Det Con Charlotte Dunford said: "I would be particularly interested to speak to another cyclist who passed the victim and offender just after the offence took place."

Witnesses should call police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

£10m dementia research centre

A NEW £10million dementia research centre will open in Oxford to develop new treatments for the condition.

The Oxford Drug Discovery Institute will be based at the Target Discovery Institute at Oxford University's Biomedical and Health Research campus at the Churchill Hospital in Old Road.

It is a part of charity Alzheimer's Research UK's efforts to develop new treatments.

A £30million Drug Discovery Alliance launched three research centres on Monday in Oxford, Cambridge and University College London.

Ninety new scientists will be employed across the centres and project leaders Prof Simon Lovestone and Prof Chas Bountra will run the Oxford facility.

Prof Bountra said: "We will work with the best academic and industrial scientists to identify potential new drug targets for dementia.

"We will then generate high quality starting points for making new medicines, but then uniquely, make them freely available to the world's biomedical community.

"By doing so we will catalyse new biology, new disease understanding and importantly accelerate those few molecules which are likely to slow down the progression of this dreadful disease."

Last year health experts committed to finding a disease-modifying therapy for the condition by 2025 at a G8 Dementia summit.

Bridge reopens after six months of works

A RAILWAY bridge in Didcot that was closed for more than six months reopened on Tuesday.

Electrification works to the Great Western Mainline forced Foxhall Road bridge to close on July 28 last year.

The Great Western Mainline runs between Cardiff and London Paddington, passing through Didcot, and the electrification process will involve faster and quieter trains using the tracks.

Service provider Network Rail said Foxhall Road bridge needed to be raised to accommodate the new overhead electrification lines.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Its closure, and road works on Basil Hill Road and the A4130 for the electrification, has caused traffic problems for commuters.

Back in November, temporary traffic lights installed by the National Grid, on behalf of Network Rail, to fit underground cables on the A4130 caused miles of queues and hours of waiting.

Jim Weeden, project director at Network Rail, said: "I would like to thank the local community for their patience and understanding while we carried out this work.

"Now the bridge is open, people and businesses in the area are a step closer to seeing the benefits that electrification and the new electric trains will bring."

Works on the bridge also included making it two lanes rather than one, and improving access to Didcot Parkway station car park for pedestrians by moving the footpath.

Tool hire company Didcot Plant is based in Basil Hill Road next to the bridge and director Martyn Birch said the works did not affect the business.

He continued: "The last thing we wanted was for it to have an impact but fortunately it didn't.

"Luckily a lot of our business we deliver out and we managed to overcome any problems with regulars who come to the site.

"We had to come in from the other access and because of other Network Rail work we had to get through three sets of traffic lights.

"While it was not a massive problem, it was good to get it open again."

Didcot West county councillor Nick Hards said: "The main thing for the commuters is those people coming from the north and the east will have a much easier journey to get to the south.

"It makes life easier for everybody and it should reduce congestion."

Cllr David Nimmo Smith, Oxfordshire County Council cabinet member for Transport, added: "The reopening of the bridge is good news for a number of reasons.

"Obviously it is another step forward for Network Rail in their massive electrification programme.

"For people using the roads the reopening will be welcome as the council's scheme at Milton Interchange gathers pace."

Care home 'must improve'

• From front page

The report continued: "Some care plans did not provide sufficient instructions to staff on how to support people.

"Other records in relation to people's care were not consistently completed."

Investigators say the manager at the centre has a "clear understanding" of the changes needed, while there were "gaps in training for both new and existing staff".

Nursing agency The Orders of St John Care Trust run the home and say it is "committed to improving the care".

Assistant operations director Patsy Just added: "We are sorry for any concern the report may cause and would like to reassure residents and their relatives that they are very safe at The Meadows.

"The report recognised that the manager of the home had already identified changes required and The Meadows is improving under the leadership of the management team."

Oxfordshire County Council is working with the care home to address the improvements.

Spokesperson Marcus Mabberley said: "The council takes issues raised by the Care Quality Commission very seriously and clearly what was identified was not acceptable.

"The home's management has addressed the majority of the matters raised and assures the council that other areas are being worked on to get back to the high standards that we demand.

"The council is placing clients at the home and contract officers are monitoring the situation."

Gateway plans

DIDCOT: Didcot Gateway planners are seeking advice on whether an environmental impact report is needed before submitting a full application.

South Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) wants to build a hotel, bar, flats, a gym, food store and multi-storey car park opposite Didcot Parkway.

Consultants GL Hearn have drawn up the plans and submitted an environmental request to SODC on February 10.

SODC is expected to make a decision by March 17.

Man charged

DIDCOT: A 28-year-old has been charged with two counts of possessing an offensive weapon and one of affray after an incident in Mendip Heights on February 11.

The accused will appear at Oxford Crown Court on March 6 in connection with an incident where the victim was chased by a man holding a plank of wood.

Lambing days

LITTLE WITTENHAM: The dates for this year's lambing weekends at the Earth Trust Farm in Little Wittenham have been announced as March 21 and 22 and March 28 and 29.

The public can come and visit the sheep sheds and the newborn lambs, have a tractor and trailer ride and explore the outdoor play area.

Entry will be £6 for adults, £3 for children and £15 for a family of four.

Councils finalise their budgets for next year

OXFORD City Council and Vale of White Horse District Council were in the process of signing off their budgets last night as the Guardian went to press.

Oxford's councillors had been recommended to approve a 1.99 per cent rise in council tax to £278.97 for Band D properties.

Capital funding of £1.4million for flood alleviation at Northway and Marston and £150,000 for an extension to Seacourt Park and Ride had also been proposed.

In the Vale, councillors were set to approve a freeze in council tax to keep the annual cost for a Band D property at £116.69.

More than £7.6million has been set aside for capital projects, including a new leisure centre in Wantage.

Almost £2m of savings are planned through efficient working, which may see it combine services with other councils.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

South Oxfordshire District Council are due to finalise their budget this evening, with recommendations put forward to freeze council tax at £114.68.

Similar to the Vale, SODC have proposed £665,360 of savings through efficient working.

West Oxfordshire District Council will meet next Wednesday to discuss their budget, after it was recommended for approval by their cabinet yesterday.

They are also proposing a freeze in council tax to keep their annual rate at £81.63.

And Cherwell District Council will agree their budget next Monday, with their tax also set to stay at the same level of £123.50.

Images released of toilets blaze victim

POLICE have released CCTV images of a man who died in a fire in public toilets in Faringdon.

Jonathan Martin Mills, 49, from Oxford, was pronounced dead at the scene after the fire in Southampton Street at 1.55pm on February 9.

A post-mortem into his death proved inconclusive and further tests are being undertaken.

On Monday, Thames Valley Police released images of Mr Mills at Pear Tree Services in Oxford at 7am on the day of his death.

They picture Mr Mills wearing a light green and grey jacket, dark trousers and light grey trainers.

Police are continuing to appeal for witnesses to piece together what happened while members of the public are said to have tried to help Mr Mills out of the toilet block.

Det Insp Craig Kirby said: "I would also appeal to anyone who may have used the public toilets in Southampton Street, which is situated close to Budgens.

"Further, it has been reported that members of the public saw the fire and tried to help the man.

"I am keen to speak to these people as they may have vital information that can aid our investigation."

Call police on 101.

News Bites

Michael Welply

THAME: South Oxfordshire District councillor Michael Welply has died following a battle with cancer.

He represented Thame at district level and also served on the authority's planning committee, as well as being a town councillor.

Ann Midwinter, chairman of SODC, said: "He was a very hard working councillor who pursued projects to the end."

Fly-tipping

GARSINGTON: An Oxford man who was caught dumping waste in Lower Blackberry Lane in Garsington has been fined £1,500.

Grant Quick, 21, of Pottery Place in Blackbird Leys, was caught on CCTV fly-tipping in July and August last year just a few miles away from a recycling centre.

Book signing

DIDCOT: The Railway Centre's own Stuart Hylton is signing copies of his book 'What the Railways Did For Us: The Making of Modern Britain' at the site on Sunday.

His book looks at the changes that occurred in the UK during the beginning of the railway age.

He will be signing from Midday to 2pm.

Site clearance

ABINGDON: Work has begun to clear the site in Abbey Meadow where Abingdon Hydro is set to install two Archimedes Screws to generate hydroelectricity from the River Thames.

The patch of land next to the weir has been cleared of foliage, with construction expected to begin in the summer.

More than £700,000 has been invested in the project, with the group looking for £1.25m of funding for the work.

Celebrants

OXON: Oxfordshire County Council is recruiting more marriage celebrants to conduct and register marriages.

Currently 17 celebrants are employed by the council.

Recruitment evenings at registry offices across the county are being held in Oxford on March 5, Witney on March 9 and Abingdon on March 10.

Man arrested

OXFORD: A 38-year-old man has been arrested on suspicion of grievous bodily harm and possession with intent to supply a class A drug after a woman was assaulted in Headington on February 15.

Police were called to a house in Warren Crescent after the victim had been assaulted while inside the property.

Fire engine crash death an 'accident'

A FIRE fighter said he did everything he could to avoid hitting an elderly woman who stepped out in front of his fire engine, an inquest into her death heard.

Sultan Begum, 79, of Cowley Road, Oxford, was hit by the fire truck just metres from her home at 3.45pm on May 16 last year.

The pensioner died hours later at the John Radcliffe Hospital.

Coroner Darren Salter gave a verdict of accident death at Oxfordshire Coroner's Court last Thursday.

Fire fighter Gavin Carter, who was driving the truck, said he had activated his blue lights, siren and flashing headlights.

• Oxfordshire Coroner's Court

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

He added: "She looked up at me.

"I was driving a red fire engine with lights and two tone sirens.

"When someone looks up you presume they have seen you.

"There was nothing else I could have done. I did everything I have been trained to do."

The inquest heard the fire engine was answering an emergency call to Blackbird Leys where a six-year-old boy had got his fingers trapped in the cogs of a bicycle.

Mr Carter told the court Mrs Begum stopped at a central refuge on Cowley Road but stepped out in front of the on-rushing fire engine.

Evidence at the inquest revealed Mr Carter had been travelling at 36mph – over the 30mph speed limit but within emergency call-out policy – and had braked to 19mph when the crash happened.

Collision investigator PC Stephen Moffat said Mr Carter would have only had 1.2 seconds to react.

School teacher Hannah Ahmad, a witness, said she thought Mrs Begum's behaviour was "bizarre".

She added: "It was as though she just stepped right out in front of it."

Witness statements were also read out and the court heard how Mrs Begum had previously been helped across the road on several occasions.

Just before the collision passer-by Sharon Wroe had offered to help her cross the road but Mrs Begum had answered in a language she did not understand.

Oxfordshire Fire and Rescue has since conducted a review into its call-out procedure and service area manager Nigel Wilson said it is in line with the majority of the country.

Mr Salter added: "We don't know why Mrs Begum stepped in front of the fire engine but it can only be that she did not appreciate what was going on.

"It is very tragic."

Art fans flock to town hall

THOUSANDS of art lovers visited Oxford Town Hall as the city hosted the second Oxford International Art Fair.

More than 150 artists from 30 countries showcased their work in three halls from February 6 to 8, with a wide range of pieces on display and for sale.

Wiltshire-based illustrator Alex Crump said: "I really enjoyed people's reactions to seeing my work, the smiles on their faces and the great comments I received."

Fair organiser Joelle Dinnage added: "It was a great success, with an amazing atmosphere and a real buzz throughout the weekend."

Cloudy2Clear Windows - Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Josh Florey feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and Josh is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Josh a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Pooh sticks head to Witney

THE search is over to find a new venue for one of Oxfordshire's most popular past-times.

After 31 years at Day's Lock in Little Wittenham, the World Pooh Sticks Championships will move west across the county to Witney.

Organisers the Rotary Club of Oxford Spires were forced to find a new location because the event, which coincides with the Earth Trust's lambing weekends, was becoming too big for the village.

On Monday, it was revealed that Langel Common on the River Windrush will be the new venue and this year's event will take place on Sunday, June 7.

The championships, based on the game in A. A. Milne's Winnie the Pooh tales, will be run in partnership with heritage centre Cogges Manor Farm.

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Lesley Adams, spokesperson for the rotary club, said Witney ticked all the right boxes.

She continued: "We're really thrilled.

"It is easy access for people with bus transport which is one of the problems at Little Wittenham.

"It has a river and a bridge which is always useful.

"It also has space for people to wait around during heats and we try and keep them entertained for as long as possible."

The pooh sticks event attracts about 1,000 people with more than 600 competing.

At Little Wittenham the Environment Agency only allows the competition to be held between October and the end of March because of high levels of boat traffic from April.

However, Ms Adams said that will now not be a problem.

She continued: "It does not have river traffic which means we can run it during the summer months and we are not at the mercy of the river."

Colin Shone, a director at Cogges, added: "We're really delighted to be supporting it.

"These simple pleasures in life where you get out in the countryside and make your own fun is absolutely what Cogges is about.

"It is a wonderful thing to be supporting. We're really pleased to do it."

Cllr Richard Langridge, cabinet member for Communities and Culture on West Oxfordshire District Council, said: "We are thrilled that Witney has been chosen as the new venue and we can assure them that they will be given a very good welcome."

Ms Adams said news of the event's new venue has travelled as far as Wisconsin, America, where Winnie the Pooh fanatic Deb Hoffman lives.

She added: "She holds the record for having the biggest Winnie the Pooh memorabilia and wants to come and play."

Pupils embrace comic relief

CHILDREN and teachers at an Oxford Primary School turned themselves into mini versions of Mr Bean last Friday to encourage people to get into the spirit for next month's Red Nose Day.

Youngsters at Windmill Primary School, in Margaret Road, donned grey jackets and red ties to dress up as Rowan Atkinson's famous comedy creation for the day.

They are hoping that their efforts will get other local schools and residents to dress up on Red Nose Day, taking place on March 13, to raise money for charity.

Deputy headteacher Andy Spooner said: "We chose to be Mr Bean because Rowan Atkinson studied in Oxford, and we thought it would be amusing to be one of his characters for the day."

Pablo Sved, six, completed his costume with Mr Bean's iconic teddy bear.

He said: "Mr Spooner showed us clips of Mr Bean in assembly and it was really funny. I borrowed my dad's jacket and tie to dress up."

Last year, the school raised more than £1,000 for Comic Relief, and they hope to beat the total this year.

Digni-Tea celebration at Abingdon Court Care Home

TO mark Dignity Action Day 2015, residents, relatives, friends and staff at Abingdon Court Care Home gathered on Sunday 1st February for a "Digni-Tea" celebration.

Chef, Wendy, baked and decorated a cake in support of the campaign which is celebrated every year at Abingdon Court. The cake was enjoyed by all those who attended and several residents and staff braved the cold weather to launch balloons into the Abingdon skyline to signify those who are cared for at Abingdon Court.

The campaign's core values are about having dignity in our hearts, minds and actions, changing the culture of care services and placing a greater emphasis on improving the quality of care and the experience of citizens using services including NHS hospitals, community services, care homes and home support services.

"The Dignity in Care campaign is very important to us all at Abingdon Court. Promoting and delivering dignity in care is at the centre of what we do every day. We are proud to be associated with the campaign," said Karen Aldred, Home Manager.

Protestors rally against fossil fuel investments

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OVER one hundred students and green campaigners protested against Oxford University and the county council's investment in fossil fuel companies on Sunday.

Demonstrations - that began in Bonn Square at around 11.30am - saw campaigners staging a mock wedding ceremony between a model fossil fuel dinosaur and a bride.

The protests coincided with Global Divestment Day, calling on organisations to pull out of investment in the coal, oil and gas industries.

Ellen Gibson, a student at St Hilda's College, said: "We are taking action to tell the fossil fuel industry that enough is enough."

Al Chisholm of Fossil Free Oxfordshire added: "We want Oxfordshire County Council to move nearly £50million away from fossil fuel companies and put it into investments that are less financially risky and better for the planet."

The Fossil Free campaign has said over 180 universities, faith groups and pension funds worldwide have committed to divestment in the last two years.

Oxford University undertook a consultation last year on fossil fuel divestment, and is due to make a final decision later this year.

A statement from the university said: "At the close of the consultation period, 44 written submissions were made to the university, reflecting a wide range of views."

It added: "The university will make a full statement once council has made a decision, setting out the reasons for it."

Oxfordshire County Council's investments are managed by the Oxfordshire Pension Fund Committee, which also acts on behalf of more than 100 employers in the county.

Oxfordshire County Council spokesman Marcus Mabberley said: "The committee has determined that there was no clear financial justification for divesting in fossil fuel companies currently.

"Part of the committee's role is to regularly review its investment strategy and this monitoring function will continue."

Britain's housing in crisis

'BROKEN Market, Broken Dreams'. This was the title of a booklet which dropped through my door this week from the National Housing Federation.

It is Britain's housing market that is broken, and the dreams of millions of young adults who make up Generation Rent that have been broken by the total failure of the coalition government to tackle the country's housing crisis.

Tory and Lib Dem policies have meant that less than half the number of homes that we need are being built each year. Last year, the lowest number of homes for social rent were built for over two decades.

The failure to build enough homes, and the demand from young adults wanting to leave home or set up with a partner, has driven up average house prices in the South East to £300,000 - 10 times the average annual salary in the region.

For local people in Oxfordshire, things are even worse, with an average house price of nearly £400,000.

The failure to build new homes has also led to a huge inflation in the cost of private renting in Oxford, and elsewhere in the county. In Oxford, renters are frequently paying half their income on housing.

The National Housing Federation is backing the Homes for Britain campaign and calling on the parties to produce a plan to end the crisis.

Labour has done this already and it will be one of our top priorities in the Election Manifesto.

The housing market is well and truly broken - your vote on May 7 can help to mend it.

Police mental health project will continue

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

A POLICE initiative in Oxfordshire that sees officers and mental health services work together to help those in distress is set to continue after a successful pilot period.

The Street Triage project initially ran from December 31, 2013 to December 31, 2014.

Mental health professionals offer on the spot advice to officers who are dealing with people with possible mental health problems.

This happens between 6pm and 2am, seven days a week.

And a report published by Thames Valley Police last Thursday said that there had been an 88 per cent positive reaction to the project, and the number of detentions made under the Mental Health Act had reduced.

Assistant chief constable Alan Baldwin said: "I am delighted that our Street Triage pilot in Oxfordshire is delivering such good care to those in need.

"The Street Triage team has made a significant impact by putting the needs of the person at the heart of the service, proving that by working in partnership we can find more appropriate pathways for those in crisis.

"I am committed to developing our Street Triage partnership in Oxfordshire and keen to extend it to other areas within the Thames Valley."

During the first year, the Street Triage team was involved in 1,039 incidents involving 796 people, with the main cause of concern for police being self harm.

The service will continue in the county with a commitment made by the Oxfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group to operate for a further year under the current arrangement.

Rob Bale, clinical director of Mental Health Network Thames Valley, said: "The Street Triage project is an excellent example of effective partnership between police and the NHS.

"It means more people are getting appropriate mental health support at the earliest opportunity."

Online safety in the classroom

SCHOOLCHILDREN in Stadhampton have been learning about online safety as part of countywide efforts to tackle the issue.

As part of Safer Internet Day last week, pupils at Stadhampton Primary School have been creating a presentation for their parents about how they and adults can improve online safety further.

Advice included not replying to abusive messages, and parents speaking with their children about what they are doing online.

Kathryn Turner, Stadhampton Primary School's headteacher, said: "E-safety is a priority for the school throughout the year but Safer Internet Day raises the profile.

"We know that the majority of our parents have already been involved in teaching their children about internet safety, however we would like to reach out to all parents."

Schools across the county also took part in the project, run by Oxfordshire County Council.

Their anti-bullying co-ordinator Jo Brown said: "Many young children now have regular access to the internet, and it is hugely important that they know how to stay safe and have a positive online experience.

"It's also vital that parents engage with their children about their use of the internet and discuss safety issues with them."

'Dedicated' Oxford Uni academic Sir David dies

TRIBUTES have been paid to Oxford academic and college principal Sir David Watson, who died on February 8 aged 65 after a short illness

Sir David had been working as principal of Oxford University's Green Templeton College, on Woodstock Road in Oxford, since 2010.

He also served as dean and then deputy director of Oxford Polytechnic – which later became Oxford Brookes University – between 1981 and 1990, where he championed the development of modular courses.

And luminaries in the higher education sector have been paying tribute to an "influential" and "energetic" principal.

A statement posted on Green Templeton College's website read: "He was an energetic 'hands-on' head of house who was involved in every aspect of college life.

"He demonstrated outstanding dedication in his leadership of the college's dynamic, influential and friendly community of students, fellows and staff.

"His legacy to Green Templeton is enormous. He will be greatly missed by all members of Green Templeton College and his friends and colleagues in Oxford."

Alistair Fitt, vice-chancellor of Oxford Brookes University, said: "We are deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Sir David Watson, an influential and dynamic figure in the higher education sector.

"Sir David enriched the lives of thousands of students and colleagues throughout his career, and the comments and tributes coming through since the news of his death are a clear testament to how well respected and admired he was.

"Although Sir David left shortly before we became Oxford Brookes University in 1992, we were fortunate that he remained a great friend and continued supporter of ours for which we will always be grateful."

Along with his time in Oxford, Sir David also led the University of Brighton to gaining university status in 1992, remaining there as vice-chancellor for 13 years.

In 2005 he became professor of higher education management at the Institute of Education, University of London, from 2005 to 2010, before making his return to Oxford.

He leaves behind his wife Betty, children Michael and Sarah, and granddaughter Lila.

A celebration of his life is being planned to take place in Oxford later in the year.

Young are engaged in politics

WE hear and read a great deal these days about how young people are not engaged in politics, and that many of those approaching their first general election are simply disinterested in what politicians talk about.

It was fantastic, therefore, that my first hustings of this general election was organised by the so called "politically disengaged" young.

The event was organised extremely well by Matt Wise an A level student at King Alfred's Academy, for fellow members of his politics group.

The parliamentary candidates for all the main parties (Conservative, Labour, Lib Dems, Greens and Ukip) attended and were given a grilling by students.

Not only was I very impressed with the way the Question Time style debate was set up and run, but the range of questions was refreshing.

It is very easy to assume that young people have a very limited view of politics.

I am sure we were all prepared for questions on tuition fees, but the first question was about the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership, and we diversified from there to other issues such as national security and the national housing shortage.

The experience has given me faith that despite what the media say, young people see that politics is relevant to them and they demonstrated how challenging they can be on a range of issues.

As the general election approaches, there will be a range of hustings organised. I am very much looking forward to the opportunity to engage with as many local people as possible and facing questions just as demanding and insightful as those we had at King Alfred's.

The museum's gala week is running until Saturday to kick off the celebrations.

Knife robbery

OXFORD: A 64-year-old woman was threatened with a knife and had her handbag stolen while she walked along the alleyway between Frenchay Road and Stone Meadow last Wednesday.

It happened at around 1.15pm, when a man approached the victim from behind, grabbed her and held a knife to her neck.

The victim dropped her bag, which contained a book, a lavender scarf and her lunch, which the robber stole.

£20m extra cuts in county council budget

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

OXFORDSHIRE County Council's budget for the coming financial year, which will see more than £20million of cuts made between now and 2019, was approved at a full council meeting on Tuesday.

Just over half of councillors voted to approve the budget, which will see annual tax rates increased by 1.99 per cent to £1,232.46 for a Band D property.

Most of the £20m of savings will be made through slashing funding for adult social care and the council's environment and economy department.

It is on top of a £201m programme of cuts that the council was forced to begin in 2010, before the council was required to find an additional £64m of savings in 2013.

County council leader Ian Hudspeth said: "This budget will be a major challenge for us and there is no way we can disguise the cuts.

"I suspect this is a budget that no group would really want to put through as it's a cutting budget."

Also approved at Tuesday's meeting was the axing of the chief executive post, currently occupied by Joanna Simons, as part of cost-saving measures.

As a result, Ms Simons will receive a compensation package of £151,147 and an early pension payout of £422,796 from the council.

Cllr Hudspeth had previously said the removal of the post would save the county council £250,000 a year.

John Christie, deputy leader of the Labour group, said: "The cuts are really unacceptable and we need a transformation of local government finance because there's not sufficient money to meet all the needs."

Green group leader David Williams said: "We must face up to the fact that the scale of cuts is destroying local services."

And Liberal Democrat councillor Richard Webber added: "Some of the things they are doing like sacking CEOs and proposing unitary authorities smack of desperation."

Building work to start on Barton's 885 homes

WORK on a major housing development in Barton is set to begin next month after details about street layouts, drainage and landscaping were approved by Oxford City Council last Wednesday.

The council's East Area Planning Committee voted to give final approval to the 885-home development, and pave the way for construction to begin.

Infrastructure work is expected to start in March, which will see the roads, sewers and electricity linkages installed.

And city council leader Bob Price hopes that the first residents will be able to move in by February next year.

He said: "The housing crisis is getting worse by the month, and to have the opportunity to build nearly 900 houses of high quality is crucial for our future growth.

"It will also help to tackle some of the worst problems such as emerging homelessness, and the ability of the council to house people.

"We're aiming to finish the whole project by the early part of 2018, and we hope the first people will start moving in by this time next year."

Competition

WIN tickets to an evening of Mystical Romance

TWO of Oxford University's top music graduates, tenor Ronan Busfield and violinist Amy Tress, will return to Oxford on the 28th February at 7pm for an evening concert at St John the Evangelist Church, Iffley Road.

Amy and Ronan were selected for representation by prestigious agency Noel Music Management and are now in high demand for concerts across the UK. They count the Royal Albert Hall, Royal Festival Hall and Glyndebourne Opera House among their previous performance venues.

The duo will be joined by celebrated British pianist Christian Dawson for performances of some of their favourite music, including pieces by Beethoven and Schumann. This is a perfect evening of culture for seasoned classical music lovers and newcomers to the concert hall alike.

Violinist Amy and Tenor Ronan have curated a concert of their most loved pieces for a performance in the city which launched their careers. 'Mystical Romance' is the concert's theme – works inspired by mythical or romantic stories

Closing date:
Thursday, February 26, 2015

Both performers careers are in the ascendant, Ronan now appears in the UK's biggest concert halls and is in high demand as an operatic tenor. He has worked with Glyndebourne Opera, English Touring Opera and Scottish Opera.

Amy has played at the Royal Festival Hall, Royal Albert Hall and St Martin in the Fields. She performs as a soloist and with the London Chamber Collective which she co-founded in 2013

Celebrated pianist Christian Dawson will accompany the concert. Christian studied at the Guildhall school of Music and Drama and the Royal Northern College of Music. As well as an incredibly busy solo and accompanist schedule, Christian lectures and teaches frequently

WIN TICKETS

We have two pairs of tickets to what promises to be an amazing evening of music. To be in with a chance of winning one all you have to do is answer this simple question:

Q: Which instrument does Amy Tress play?

For more concet details visit www.bit.ly/mysticalromance

Winners will be contacted by email and will be sent etickets to be printed out and taken to the concert.

Competition

WIN tickets to see The Audience in London's West End

WIN tickets to see Kristin Scott Thomas in a new version of Peter Morgan's smash-hit play, directed by Stephen Daldry. The critically acclaimed production returns to the West End for a limited season from 21 April 2015.

For sixty years Elizabeth II has met each of her twelve Prime Ministers in a weekly audience at Buckingham Palace – a meeting like no other in British public life – it is private. Both parties have an unspoken agreement never to repeat what is said. Not even to their spouses.

The Audience breaks this contract of silence – and imagines a series of pivotal meetings between the Downing Street incumbents and their Queen. From Churchill to Cameron, each Prime Minister has used these private conversations as a sounding board and a confessional – sometimes intimate, sometimes explosive.

Closing date:
Friday, April 10, 2015

We have two pairs of tickets for this amazing production and if you want to be in with a chance of winning a pair all you have to do is answer this simple question:

Q: At which London theatre will The Audience be performed?

For more information and to buy tickets to the show please visit: www.TheAudiencePlay.com

Terms And Conditions.

Each prize consists of two tickets (usual value £62.50 per ticket) to THE AUDIENCE at the Apollo Theatre, Shaftesbury Avenue, London. Tickets are valid for Monday – Wednesday performances at 7.30pm from Tuesday 21st April to Monday 4th May only.

All elements of the prize are strictly subject to availability and are non-transferable. All prize elements must be redeemed on the same date. Any additional expenses incurred over and above the prize element must be covered by the winner. The cost of travel is not included in the prize.

Winners will be contacted and informed via email on Monday, April 13 and all tickets will be held at the theatre box office under the winner's name for collection on the day of the performance. Please collect tickets within one hour of the performance starting.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

Invisible Woman

FUNNY woman Maxine Jones will be at The Old Fire Station in George Street with her stand-up show, 'Invisible Woman'.

The comedienne is back on the stage after her successful debut stand-up tour 'Embarrassing Mother' last year.

Tickets cost from £8 to £10 with the gig suitable for anyone over the age of 12. Visit oldfirestation.org.uk for details.

Oxford goes all Dutch

INFLUENCED by groups such as XTC, Talking Heads and King Crimson, expect to be blown away when Manchester based indie group Dutch Uncles turn up at Oxford's Truck Record Store on February 27.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Named after the 1969 play by Simon Gray, the quintet of Duncan Wallis (lead vocals and piano), Daniel 'Sped' Spedding (guitar), Robin Richards (bass guitar), Andy Proudfoot (drums) and Pete Broadhead (guitar), are currently touring all over the UK promoting their latest and fourth studio album 'O Shudder', which is due to be released this month.

"The inspiration behind the album is fear of being forgotten which is always an underestimated drive," lead singer Duncan Wallis told the Guardian.

"However, I suppose the pressure of domesticating ourselves and establishing our careers at our age was the catalyst for what we produced really."

He added: "This will be our first time visiting the Truck Records Store on Cowley Road, and only our third time playing in Oxford.

"So we're very pleased to be coming back in a live sense and even more so for the record hunting we get to partake in."

Since their formation back in April 2008, the group have quickly become one of the hottest prospects in the British indie/rock industry.

With their unique sound of influenced '70s pop along with the androgynous vocals of front man Duncan Wallis, Dutch Uncles have released 15 singles and four albums, with all of their collections of hits being favourable with critics.

The band also supported American rock group Paramore on their European tour back in 2013.

"We'd heard that they (Paramore) were fans, and then with about three weeks notice before the tour was supposed to begin they got in touch." Duncan revealed.

"Most of us had planned to go on holiday, but luckily everyone decided that playing up to 9,000 people at a racecourse in Milan was a better way to spend the summer than at a hostel in Spain."

Paramore guitarist Taylor York mentioned Dutch Uncles as one source of inspiration for their 2013 self-titled album.

This is a free event that will begin at 6pm.

Jazz quartet

THE Elisa Caleb Quartet will be jazzing up The Oxford Wine Café this Sunday, February 22.

Joining Elisa at the South Parade venue will be Jo Caleb on the guitar, Steve Wyndam on the drums and Paul Jefferies on the bass.

This is a free event, which starts at 7pm.

Call 01865 236959.

Noises Off

STUDENTS from The University of Oxford will perform Michael Frayn's award winning comedy 'Noises Off' at the Oxford Playhouse until February 21.

Director Lloyd is hoping to put on the production 'Nothing On', but with an overworked stage crew and average actors, the show is a recipe for disaster.

Tickets cost from £11 to £17.50, with the show suitable for anyone over the age of 14.

Call 01865 305305 to book.

Madama Butterfly Opera

REGARDED as one of the most powerful operas of all time 'Madama Butterfly' is poised to blow Oxford away at the city's New Theatre this Saturday, February 21.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Created by Italian composer Giacomo Puccini in the early 1900s, the moving performance tells the tale of a beautiful Japanese girl, who falls in love with an American naval lieutenant.

The opera, which is split into three acts, could make the hairs on the back of your neck stand with its acting, singing and heart-breaking storyline.

Starring in the production will be Ukrainian actor Ruslan Zinevych, portraying as Lieutenant B.F. Pinkerton in the United States Navy.

Zinevych, who has won many singing competitions all over Europe, told the Oxfordshire Guardian getting into character as Lieutenant B.F. Pinkerton was 'quite easy but also difficult'.

"Every role takes time to really get into it seriously," he said.

"It's a real pleasure performing any one of Puccini's roles, so that makes it quite easy to perform.

"However, at the same time it's difficult to put yourself into a different character - your vision, feeling, and expression."

Starring as one of the main roles in this production will mean a lot to Zinevych, as the Ukrainian actor has had to escape his country's current conflict to pursue his acting dream.

Zinevych said: "I've been a soloist at the Odessa Opera House since 1994, but I've always mixed my Ukrainian work with my international artistic career."

He added: "My theatre and my country educated me as an artist and as a human being.

"I've always respected my Ukrainian teachers. Obviously, an artistic life is full of up and downs, but as soon as you are heading towards your target, your Lord will always lead you there.

"Regarding the current political situation, I think now it is the time when our nation - mentally and from the heart - is becoming a real united country. We have to overcome this war brought to us from outside.

"People will finally start feeling themselves as Ukrainian, not Soviet, not Russian anymore.

"Now the time is arriving of the real end of the soviet world."

'Madama Butterfly' has been directed by Ellen Kent, who has directed and produced productions such as Carmen, Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty and Swan Lake.

Zinevych added: "We have worked together for many years and Ellen has taught me many professional secrets."

Tickets for the George Street event cost from £17.90 to £43.90 with the production starting at 7.30pm.

Go to atgtickets.com to book.

Folk evening

MULTI-AWARD winning folk duo Ninebarrow will be performing at Oxford Folk Club tomorrow evening, Friday, February 20.

Jon Whitley and Jay LaBouchardiere, who make up the duo, are currently touring around the country singing tracks off their debut album, 'While the Blackthorn Burns'.

It starts at 7.30pm.

Jeff Warner

AMERICAN folk and country singer Jeff Warner will be performing at the Wychwood Folk Club on Saturday, February 21.

The musician, who is from New York City, will perform traditional American and British folk songs at the Chipping Norton venue.

Tickets cost £8 or £6 in advance, with the gig starting at 7.30pm.

Call 01993 831427 for details.

Jazz duo

JAZZ guitarists Pete Oxley and Nick Meler will be performing at The Albion Beatnik Bookstore on Walton Street, Oxford, on February 25.

The two friends will perform songs of their album 'Travels to the West'.

It costs £10 per ticket with the gig starting at 7.45pm.

Canadian tunes in Oxfordshire

FOLK musician Miriam Jones will be bringing her unique Canadian vocals to The Wheatsheaf next Wednesday, February 25.

The singer who now lives in Oxford with her husband, will be stopping off at the High Street pub as she tours all over the country promoting her latest and seventh studio album, 'Between Green and Gone'.

"I played an opening slot for a Spin Jazz Club Night there several years ago, and have enjoyed a few gigs as a punter too," Miriam told the Guardian.

"It's a special venue in Oxford as it's very intimate, almost like a large house concert setting, and with a certain amount of seating for folks.

"I'm definitely looking forward to having the stage and audience for a full set."

Originally from Cranbrook, British Columbia, Miriam's family moved to the Highlands of Papua New Guinea so her father could teach at a theological college, where they lived for three years.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

It was during this period where Miriam decided to become a musician, after she wrote her first song aged eight.

Three years later, her family moved back to Canada where the singer learnt how to play the drums, won a regional song-writing contest in her teens, spent the prize money to purchase her first guitar and then toured with a small vocal jazz ensemble.

She has now been living in the UK for the last seven years, and recently toured with Actez Camera founder and front man Roddy Frame.

"What a fantastic tour that was. It was short but really sweet," Miriam explained.

"I was met with a huge warmth from Roddy's audience, and the venues were very pleasing.

"Roddy and his band were very welcoming, and they put on a perky show for sure."

She added: "Love inspired me to move Europe.

"It's true, but my husband aside, I was also very keen on British music and felt an interest in discovering that culture more."

It starts at 8pm.

Try orienteering at Shotover Country Park
"If you fancy a new outdoor activity for all the family, why not give orienteering a go. This event is organised by Thames Valley Orienteering Club and it's ideal for families and children. There will be several courses and plenty of help on hand for newcomers. There will be six courses to choose from, from 1km up to 5km, taking around 30-75 mins to complete, plus a special string course for very young children, where they follow a line of string to find fun characters. If you've never tried orienteering before, it's a bit like a treasure hunt to find a series of checkpoints around your chosen course. They're marked by flags on the ground and you register each one with an electronic timing chip to record your progress, and prove you've been to them! The challenge arises by there being no set route between the checkpoints and you have to choose your own way, using a detailed orienteering map of the park. This is part of a series of four events around Oxford:
Saturday 14 February - Hill End
Saturday 14 March - Cutteslowe Park
Saturday 11 April - Shotover Country Park
Saturday 16 May - University Parks
It's great fun and the events are supported by Oxford City Council and Up and Running in Oxford, who have supplied some great prizes. Come along any time between 10.00am to 11.30am and don't forget your sense of adventure! The cost is £6 per family group, or £2 for solo juniors.

Angie McEvoy abandoned her original ambition of being Watford's answer to Maria Callas when she discovered stand up comedy and realised how much fun being sarcastic to drunk people could be.

"Always enjoyable... Angie McEvoy deserves her own TV show... My favourite new comedian by miles." – Time Out

Paul Ricketts turned to stand up on the advice of his therapist. His intelligent humour focuses not only on sharp observations from life, but also racial, cultural and satirical subject, intermingled with strangle tales of ordinary madness.

"Weird and wonderful... should be given his own TV show"– THE STAGE
"Great gags"– ADAM BLOOM

Headline Act

Jonny Awsum From his roots in a small Derbyshire village, Jonny Awsum has stumbled into the bright lights of comedy venues around the UK – and fortunately people are laughing! With his likeable style and trusty guitar, Jonny's musings take in everything from the stadium banter of Jon Bon Jovi to the perils of climbing scaffolding after eight hours in the pub.

"The host with the most"– The Sun
"Cooler than a hypothermic Samuel L Jackson"– The Daily Star
"He's awesome!"– Time Out Magazine

Please bear in mind that this show will contain strong language and adult humour

New drug drive legislation in place

A NEW law will be introduced to England and Wales on Monday, March 2 to crack down on motorists who are on medication when driving.

The new regulation is designed to catch drivers who risk lives by getting behind the wheel after taking illegal drugs, and not those taking legitimate medicines that don't impair their ability to drive.

Road safety campaign, 'THINK!' is encouraging people who take medicines and aren't sure if they are safe to drive to check with their pharmacist or doctor.

"If you are taking your medicine as directed and your driving is not impaired, then you are not breaking the law and there is no need to worry." Road Safety Minister Robert Goodwill said.

"We advise anyone who is unsure about the effects of their medication or how the new legislation may affect them to seek the advice of their doctor or pharmacist."

By James Richings

The new law sets limits at very low levels for eight drugs, which are Cloanzepam, Diazepam, Flunitrazepam, Lorazepam, Oxazepam, Temazepam, Methadone and Morphine.

However, the limits that have been set for these drugs exceed normal prescribed doses.

This means that the vast majority of people can drive as they normally would, as long as they are taking their medicine in accordance with the advice of a healthcare professional and/or as printed in the accompanying leaflet, and if their driving is not impaired.

There will also be a medical defence if a driver has been taking medication as directed and is found to be over the limit, but not impaired.

'THINK!' also advises drivers who are taking prescribed medication at high doses to carry evidence with them, such as prescriptions slips.

This is to minimise any inconvenience should they be asked to take a test by the police.

"Don't stop taking your medicines, prescribed or otherwise, if you are worried about this new law." Professor David Taylor, Royal Pharmaceutical Society spokesman and member of the Department for Transport advisory panel on drug driving said.

"Instead, talk to your doctor or pharmacist for information about how your medicines might affect your ability to drive. They'll be happy to give you the advice you need to stay safe."

ENJOY AN EXTRA £500 OFF

When you test drive any Ford car by the end of February 2015

With the All-New Mondeo recently winning 'WhatCar? Estate Car of the Year 2015', and the Fiesta and Focus still the UK's best-selling cars*, we've decided to celebrate by giving you an extra £500 off the price of any Ford car when you take one for a test drive by 28th February 2015. To book your test drive visit Hartwell Ford - Abingdon or go to http://www.hartwell.co.uk/ford/

Official fuel consumption figures in mpg (l/100km) for the Ford Fiesta range: urban 33.6-76.4 (8.4-3.7), extra urban 62.8-91.1 (4.5-3.1), combined 47.9-85.6 (5.9-3.3). Official CO_2 emissions 138-85g/km.

The mpg figures quoted are sourced from official EU-regulated test results (EU Directive and Regulations 692/2008), are provided for comparability purposes and may not reflect your actual driving experience.
*Fiesta was the 1st and Focus was the 2nd best-selling vehicle in the UK in 2014.
Participating dealers only. Test drive any Ford vehicle between 1st February 2015 and 28th February 2015 and save £500 (inc. VAT) off any new Ford car or £500 (exc. VAT) off any new Ford Commercial Vehicle. Cars to be contracted and registered by 28th February 2015. Commercial Vehicles to be contracted by 28th February 2015, and registered by 31st March 2015. Offer can be used in conjunction with selected Ford Small Fleet terms and discounts. See ford.co.uk

Exiles heavily beaten by ruthless Sale Sharks

By Jack Johnson
jack@taylornewspapers.co.uk

LONDON Welsh were taught a tough lesson in taking their chances in a crushing 52-12 defeat at home to Sale Sharks on Sunday.

The visitors ran in eight tries to condemn the Exiles to a 14th consecutive Aviva Premiership defeat and leave them winless at the bottom of the table.

Welsh are still 20 points behind second bottom Newcastle Falcons but with eight games remaining are running out of time to avoid relegation.

On Sunday, two sucker punch tries ultimately led to the Exiles' downfall.

After being camped in the Sale 22 and edging closer to bringing the match to 14-14, the home side were penalised for crossing.

This allowed Sale to clear their lines and Will Addison broke two tackles to touch down.

And on the stroke of half-time with the scoreline at 28-7, Welsh should have reduced the deficit as Seb Stegmann and Rob Lewis broke on last man Chris Cusiter.

However, the Sale scrum half anticipated the pass and launched a counter that led to former Exile Tom Arscott crossing for a 35-7 lead after 40 minutes.

Assistant coach Gordon Ross said the counter tries were energy sappers for his players.

He continued: "You work so hard to get close to the try line and then there is a 14-point swing in the game.

"We should really be going back and waiting for the restart ourselves.

"It is tough from that point of view and once is pretty bad but for it to happen twice is gut-wrenching."

The 36-year-old added: "There are some positives in there in terms of the chances we managed to produce and had we been more clinical we probably would have come away with four tries.

"We're disappointed with the scoreline because at times we played some pretty good stuff.

"They were very clinical and took their chances very well."

Welsh travel to Kingsholm on Saturday to face ninth-placed Gloucester, before welcoming third from bottom London Irish to the Kassam Stadium on February 28 for what is effectively an eight-pointer.

Yussuf brace secures win

TOP scorer Adi Yussuf struck twice to give Oxford City a 2-1 victory over Lowestoft Town at Marsh Lane on Saturday.

The victory brought City to within two points of the Vanarama Conference North play-off places, while Yussuf is now joint-top scorer in the league.

But they had to contend with a boggy pitch following overnight rains and it was the visitors who adapted best to the conditions.

Robert Eagle fired Lowestoft in front on the stroke of half-time with a thunderous free-kick, leaving goalkeeper Mark Scott with no chance.

City needed just six second-half minutes to restore parity, with Yussuf netting from the penalty spot.

And with just five minutes remaining Yussuf hit his 21st league goal of the season.

City are without a recognised goalkeeper for Saturday's trip to Tamworth, as both Scott and fellow goalkeeper Salva de la Cruz are suspended following recent red cards for both.

But general manager Justin Merritt is confident of signing a replacement in time.

He said: "Fortunately it's a situation we've been aware of for a while, so we've had time to hopefully get something sorted out."

Down reflects on tough loss as winless run goes on

• James Down (middle), in action earlier this season (picture by Martin John)

LONDON Welsh second row James Down says last weekend's defeat at home to Sale Sharks outlined the step-up in class in the Aviva Premiership.

The Exiles returned to their league programme last weekend after a four-week European Rugby Challenge Cup and LV=Cup schedule.

However, they were soundly beaten 52-12 by a ruthless Sale side who scored eight tries at the Kassam Stadium.

Down has played in 13 of Welsh's 14 league games this season and says the intensity of the top flight of English rugby is unrivalled.

The 27-year-old said: "In the cups we played teams from different leagues and we had good performances.

"But when you come back you can really feel the intensity step up a notch and that is the strength of the league.

"When you make an error teams score straight away.

"It was just a step up."

The Exiles face Gloucester at Kingsholm on Saturday and Down is looking forward to the challenge.

He added: "It is exciting.

"We have got another opportunity to play a great team especially at one of the most famous places in English rugby.

"They have got fantastic players but if we can improve on last week we have got a chance."

The Exiles are next in action at the Kassam Stadium on February 28 when they host third from bottom London Irish.

Appleton: We need extra points quickly

HEAD coach Michael Appleton admitted he was concerned about Oxford United's perilous league position following their disappointing 2-0 defeat at Burton Albion on Saturday.

United fell behind early on when Adam McGurk seized on a rebound to head home and their fate was sealed one minute from time when Lucas Akins raced through before slotting past goalkeeper Ryan Clarke.

The U's are now just four points clear of the League Two relegation zone with just one win from their last six games.

But Appleton said the players know they have to avoid becoming further embroiled in a relegation scrap.

"The players know that and they know the responsibility that comes with that," he told the club.

"It's a 15-game season and we need to start picking up points quickly and when we do that everyone can breathe a sigh of relief."

United handed debuts to new loan signings George Baldock and substitute Kemar Roofe in the defeat.

Baldock admitted it had been a frustrating debut.

He told the club: "No matter how well you think you play, or if others tell you you did, if you lose the game you think you were awful.

"That's just the way it is, in my eyes. If I score a hat-trick and we lose 4-3 it's still a loss."

Oxford host 18th-placed Mansfield Town on Saturday in what could be a crucial match in deciding their fate this season.

Baldock urged United's supporters to back the team.

He said: "I know the fans were angry at the end there, but I'm hoping they come out on Saturday and get behind the boys, because we need them.

"They're our 12th man, so to speak, and we're going to need them.

"I see enough quality in the team to get us over the line, it's just proving it and getting those results."

Ingram's brace send holders Ardley through

LUKE Ingram netted twice as holders Ardley United struck back to beat Oxford City Nomads 2-1 in the quarter-final of the Oxfordshire Senior Cup on Tuesday.

Ricky Johnson had put the visitors in front but they could not hang on.

Tommy Castle's 93rd-minute equaliser earned Kidlington a 2-2 draw at Ascot United in the Hellenic League Premier Division on Saturday.

Milton United held 10-man Highworth Town to a 2-2 away draw, despite finding themselves two goals down at the break.

On 20 minutes into the second half Jack Daley pulled one back with a 25-yard screamer and Richie Claydon headed in the equaliser at the death.

Thame United were beaten 1-0 at league leaders Highmoor Ibis, conceding late in the first half and failing to reply despite heavy pressure after the break.

Ardley United won 2-1 at Newbury thanks to goals from Ingram and Kieran Scott, while Oxford City Nomads were 4-1 winners at Shrivenham.

Ardley travel to Thatcham Town in the Bluefin Sport Challenge Cup on Saturday, while in the league Milton United host Shrivenham, Oxford City Nomads entertain Abingdon United and Thame travel to Brimscombe & Thrupp.

Plato completes formidable Team BMR line-up

OXFORD-BASED racing driver Jason Plato will drive for Team BMR in next year's British Touring Car Championship, it was confirmed on Tuesday.

Plato had been without a drive since leaving MG at the end of last season, but is teaming up with reigning champion Colin Turkington and fellow drivers Aron Smith and Warren Scott at the squad.

He will be behind the wheel of a Volkswagen CC when the season begins in Brands Hatch on April 5.

"The decision for me to get involved with the outfit just became easier and easier," said Plato.

"It's a fantastic team of people, it's well funded and it has the right ingredients to bake the best cake there is."

He continued: "I think it is going to be amazing."

Warren Scott, who also runs the team, said: "I am eager to get started on what will be a very exciting year ahead of us in the BTCC.

"There's a strong driver line-up we have in place along with a superb team of engineers, mechanics and other members of the Team BMR family.

"I feel confident that we have the potential to be championship contenders in 2015."

'Quins storm home to set up Chinnor showdown

OXFORD Harlequins secured their place in the Oxfordshire Cup final with a 29-19 victory over Henley 2nd.

The home side ran in five tries to claim victory, with Alan Purchase, Jonathan Miller (2), Jack Avery and Rupert Cowen all going over.

They will face Chinnor 2nd in the final following their convincing 35-13 triumph over Grove.

The hosts were hit by the absence of several key players at late notice and they looked disjointed as Chinnor strolled to a 16-3 lead at the break.

Jack Horrocks and Rory Gratwohl made the scoreline more respectable after the break as both touched down for Grove, but the visitors were already out of sight.

Quins return to league action on Saturday when they host Old Patesians in National 3 South West, while Grove travel to Devizes in South West 1 East.

Abingdon went down 33-17 to Swindon College in the finals of the Southern Counties Senior Vase.

They got off to a strong start and a 10-0 lead, but were undone when Swindon ran in a flurry of tries either side of half-time.

No luck for Stars against Dynamos

IT was a disappointing result for Oxford City Stars as they were beaten 6-3 by Invicta Dynamos on Saturday night.

The match started badly for Stars as netminder James Skaife fumbled the ball into his own net 22 seconds in, although he made amends with two fine saves in the following six minutes.

Dynamos added to their tally at 11:01 through Callum Fowler, and it was quickly 3-0 as Juraj Huska got his name onto the scoresheet.

Stars finally pulled one back on 16 minutes as Evan Mackintosh fired his shot past Dynamos' netminder Mack McGill.

The second period started in similar fashion as Anthony Leone made the score 4-1 to Dynamos, before goal number five arrived on 27 minutes with Huska adding another.

James Pentecost then scored for Stars, but an Andy Smith goal meant it was 6-2 going into the final 20 minutes.

It was Stars who scored the only goal of the final period through Zsolt Mastaleriu, but it wasn't enough to stop Dynamos recording a relatively comfortable victory.

The result leaves Stars second bottom of the National Ice Hockey League 1 South with 12 points, one above basement side Cardiff Devils.

Stars will be hoping for a better result this weekend when they take on Solent Devils on Sunday evening.

BOSS BEMOANS MISSED CHANCES

Concannon frustrated as the Railwaymen's winless run continues

By Matthew Bruce
news@oxfordshireguardian.co.uk

DIDCOT Town joint manager Ian Concannon has called on his side to be more ruthless in front of goal if they want to keep their fading play-off hopes alive.

The Railwaymen were beaten 2-1 at 10-man Mangotsfield United last weekend despite creating numerous chances against the Gloucestershire side.

Concannon acknowledges that his side did not do enough to win the game.

"Unfortunately we had the chances to win the game and we just didn't take them," he said.

"We conceded two goals which were very poor from our point of view.

"But it's another game we'll look back on and know that we should have won.

"Sooner or later we have to realise that if we continue to concede like we have been and if we're not scoring then we're going to get nothing."

Didcot's poor form has coincided with a barren run for formerly prolific striker John Mills.

Mills raced to an incredible 35 goals in the first half of the season, but has found the net just three times since the turn of the year.

However, after scoring for the first time in seven matches at the weekend, Concanon now feels Mills is beginning to return to form ahead of Saturday's visit of Tiverton Town in Southern League Division 1 South & West.

Concannon said: "John came on at half-time during the Totton game and he looked lively and back to what he had been like earlier in the season.

"He took his goal well on Saturday, but I think he's still not quite back to his best.

"Goalscorers are always the ones who get the most attention, so when they stop scoring their performances are dissected a little bit more."

Concannon added: "We need John to be firing on all cylinders, because he's an important player for us."

Striker Jimmy Deabill could miss out again this weekend with a back injury, while Didcot will also be without the unavailable Adam Learoyd.
